Anti-Ragging Cell

C B Bhandari Jain College has constituted an Anti-Ragging Cell in accordance with the regulations of the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE), UGC, and the Government of India to ensure a safe, secure, and ragging-free campus. The institution follows a policy of zero tolerance towards ragging and is committed to maintaining a healthy academic environment that promotes dignity, mutual respect, and discipline.

Mission Statement:

The Anti-Ragging Cell at C.B. Bhandari Jain College is committed to preventing and eliminating any form of ragging within the college premises. Our mission is to create a campus environment that fosters respect, inclusion, and ensures the well-being of all students.

Objectives

The Anti-Ragging Cell aims to:

- Prevent ragging in all forms within the campus and outside the campus.
- Create awareness among students about the ill effects and legal consequences of ragging.
- Ensure a safe and supportive environment, especially for newly admitted students.
- Take prompt and appropriate action against those involved in ragging.
- Promote cordial and harmonious relationships among students.

Constitution of the Committee

The Anti-Ragging Cell comprises:

- Principal – Chairperson
- Vice Principal
- Senior Faculty Members
- Administrative Staff Representative
- Student Representatives

The committee works in coordination with the Anti-Ragging Squad, which actively monitors the campus.

Preventive Measures

To prevent ragging, the college undertakes the following measures:

- Anti-ragging awareness sessions during student orientation programmes
- Display of anti-ragging posters and signboards at prominent locations
- Obtaining Anti-Ragging Undertakings from students and parents as per AICTE norms
- Regular monitoring of classrooms, corridors, common areas, and campus premises
- Mentor-Mentee system to support and guide students
- Encouraging students to report any incident without fear

Internal Committee (IC):

The Internal Committee (IC) of the college plays a crucial role in the implementation of gender sensitization, prevention, and prohibition of sexual harassment of women students within the institution.

The responsibilities of the Internal Committee (IC) is as follows:

a) Prevention and Sensitization:

- Dissemination of information of the existence of Internal Committee: The committee ensures that all stakeholders are aware of the institution's policy on sexual harassment and gender-based violence. This includes making the policy easily accessible and ensuring that everyone understands the mechanisms for reporting harassment or grievances. It is displayed on the notice boards and in the website.

b) Organizing Awareness Programs:

- The IC is responsible for organizing regular gender sensitization programs, workshops, and seminars to create awareness among students, faculty, and staff about the importance of respecting gender equality, dignity, and preventing sexual harassment.

c) Promoting a Safe Environment:

- Ensuring a gender-sensitive and safe campus environment is a primary responsibility of the IC. The IC should work to foster a culture of open dialogue on issues related to gender and sexual harassment. This includes promoting the value of mutual respect and equality within the academic and work environment.

d) Training committee members:

- Orientation or training Programmes for the members of the IC are conducted to deal with complaints, to settle matters with sensitivity.

e) Handling Complaints:

- The IC is responsible for receiving and addressing complaints related to sexual harassment from employees, students, or visitors within the institution. It acts as the primary body for Grievance Redressal and ensures that complaints are handled in a confidential, sensitive, and timely manner.

In summary, the Internal Committee (IC) in the institution plays a vital role in preventing, addressing, and redressing cases of sexual harassment, as well as promoting a gender-sensitive and respectful environment. By handling complaints effectively, conducting awareness programs, and taking preventive actions, the IC ensures that the institution upholds the principles of equality, dignity, and safety for all employees and students.
